AWARD

1. In exercise of powers conferred by Section 10 (1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947), the Government of Goa by Order dated 20-09-2006 bearing No. 28/37/2007-LAB/635 referred the following dispute for adjudication to this Labour Court-II of Goa, Panaji-Goa.

"(1) Whether Smt. Minika Salkar, Book Binder, can be construed as "workman" as per Clause (s) Section 2 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947)?

(2) If the answer to the issue No. (1) is in the affirmative, then, whether the action of the Management of M/s. Alto Typesetters, Panaji-Goa in refusing employment to Smt. Minika Salkar, Book Binder, with effect from 17-06-2001 is legal and justified?

(3) If the answer to issue No. (2) above is in the negative, then what relief the workman is entitled to?"

2. On receipt of the reference a case was registered under No. IT/72/2007 and registered A/D notices were issued to the parties. In pursuance of the said notices, the parties put in their appearance. The workman/Party I (for short, "workman") filed his statement of claim at Exhibit 6. Facts of the case in brief as pleaded by the workmen are that the Employer/Party II (for short, "Employer") is an establishment dealing in the business of printing binding and other typing jobs, located next to Hotel London Star, Miramar, Panaji-Goa. She stated that she was working in the establishment of the Party II since the year 1988 as a book binder, continuously till she was refused employment from 17-06-2001. She contended that the business of the Employer was initially located at the residence of the proprietor of the Party II, Shri Jawaharlal Furtado at Miramar and thereafter the said establishment was shifted to Miramar, Panaji-Goa alongwith all the machinery which was existing at the residence of the said proprietor. She contended that she was working continuously from the year, 1988 and was suddenly refused employment when as usual she reported for duty on 17-06-2001. She contended that at the time of refusal of her employment her monthly salary was Rs. 1,500/- . She contended that she was refused employment without any justifiable reasons or without conducting any enquiry and thus the action of the Employer amounts to unfair labour practice and contrary to terms of her employment, under which she was employed. She contended that after refusal of employment to her, she approached the Employer on number of occasions to find out the reasons for refusing employment to her, however, the Employer failed to hear her grievances and infact ordered her not to approach him in future. She contended that the sudden refusal of employment has disturbed her routine life and she is struggling to make both ends meets. She contended that since 17-06-2001 till date she is unemployed and without any earning and that her husband has also lost his job with the Government of Goa. She contended that the Employer employed her as a book binder but did not issue her any written Appointment Letter. She says that the Employer prepared and Appointment Letter for her, but the same was not served to her. She therefore prayed that she may be reinstated in service with back wages and consequential relief.

3. The Employer though duly served by registered A/D notice, failed to remain present without any sufficient cause and hence the Court passed an ex-parte Order against him and an Ex-parte Award was passed. Thereafter, the Employer filed an application for setting aside an ex-parte Award dated 10-12-2008 passed by this Hon'ble Court. This Hon'ble Court after hearing both the parties hereinabove, by Order dated 13-04-2009 allowed the said application dated 14-01-2008 filed by the Employer thereby set aside an ex-parte Award dated 10-12-2008 and re-opened the said case and an opportunity was given to Party II to file written statement.

The Employer filed written statement on 17-06-2009 which is at Exhibit 10. By the said written statement the Employer raised a preliminary objection to the claim of the Workman on the ground that the Party II is not an industry and that the Workman is not covered under the definition of workman. The Employer further raised another preliminary objection to the claim of the Workman by contending that there is no Employer/Employee relationship between himself and the Workman and that the Workman had falsely caused the dispute to be referred, and accordingly has approached the Tribunal with unclean hands and hence reference is not maintainable. The Employer also specifically denied that the Workman had been working in his establishment since the year 1988 as a 'Book-binder' continuously till she was refused employment from 01-06-2001. The Employer contended that he had on 11-11-1987 started a partnership business of printing and binding of exercise books and stationery items under the name and style of M/s. Furson Printing and Bindings, a small scale unit with its office at St. Mary's Colony Miramar, Panaji-Goa which was bearing registration No. 56/03/4432/PMT/Tiny dated 24-06-1988. The Employer contended that the said binding unit was an enterprise located in the garage adjacent to his residence separated by a common wall and was run by him single handedly without employing any workman. The Employer stated that the said printing unit was functional from the year 1988 till the year 2000 when it was closed. The Employer contended that it had neither come into existence in the year 1988 nor had its unit at the address mentioned in the cause title. The Employer contended that the workman was working as a full time household maid at his residence at Monte Furtado Building, St. Mary's Colony, Miramar since the year 1988. The Employer contended that the workman after finishing her household chores at his residence used to come to the press M/s. Furson Printers for rendering gratuitous services of cleaning the place at her own free will and wish without any request from him and without any additional remuneration or reward. The Employer contended that the workmen continued to come to the Press M/s. Furson Printers for her daily cleaning chores at the said press and therefore continuing her continuous and increased service as a maid her monthly salary for the said job were eventually merged with the monthly salary paid to her for doing the household work which aggregate was about Rs. 200/- then. The Employer contended that the job of book-binding is a professional and skilled job and not a job of household maid nor a job which can be done by a lay person and/or by a household maid. The Employer stated that the workman does not have or did not possess any professional certificate or work experience certificate to be employed in the printing and book-binding job. The Employer stated that M/s. Furson Printers and Binders always employed book-binders on part-time basis only since there was not much work of book-binding and also it was difficult to get professional book-binders on full time basis as they demanded a high work price. The Employer stated that the workman left the household services in the year 1999 on health ground after taking all her dues. The Employer stated that the following month of November, 1999 the workman came to his residence to take her back for household services and considering her pitiable state he took her back to work as a household maid which services she rendered till the year 2001 which she eventually left after taking all her dues. The Employer stated that the Party II was for the first time set-up and made operational and registered as a Unit in the year 1991. He stated that the Party II engaged in the business of computerized composing and laser printing was registered as a Small Scale Unit on 10-06-1991 under registration No. 56/01/5303/PMP//SSI/RIP/Tiny and having its premises at Alto Plaza Apartments, Block No. 5, Monanagar Alto Betim, Bardez-Goa and was operational at the aforesaid address from the period 1991 to 1997 until the same was subsequently shifted to a new address i.e. Room No. 1 (R-1), Ground Floor, St May's Colony, Miramar, Panaji-Goa. The Employer stated that the Party I was never in the employment, much less any continuous employment from the year 1988 or otherwise of either M/s. Furson Printers and Binders or M/s. Alto Type Setters. He denied the case of the Workman as pleaded in her claim statement in to by contending that the workman left the household services rendered by her, of her own will and perhaps she had got better job opportunities elsewhere as a regular trend with household maids. He therefore prayer for dismissal of reference issued by the Government.

Thereafter the case was fixed for filing of the rejoinder of the workman. On 08-7-2009 the Ld. Shri Adv., L. V. Palekar appearing for the Workman as well as the Ld. Adv., G. Agni appearing for the employer jointly submitted that the matter is likely to be settled amicable and sought time. Thereafter on 30-07-2009 the Ld. Adv., Shri L. V. Palekar appearing for the Workman as well as the Ld. Adv., G. Agni appearing for the Employer appeared along with their respective parties and orally submitted that they have settled the matter amicably and accordingly filed an application for consent Award dated nil at exhibit 11 alongwith a Memorandum of settlement dated 30-07-2009 duly signed by both the parties before this Hon'ble Court.

I have carefully gone through the application for consent Award at Exhibit 11 alongwith the Memorandum of settlement dated 30-07-2009 duly signed by both the parties. I am satisfied that the terms of settlement is definitely in the interest of the workman and the employer. Therefore I accept the submission made by the parties and pass the consent Award in terms of the settlement dated 30-07-2009 at Exhibit 11 and hence pass the following Order.

Award

1. The Workman and the Employer have agreed that the Employer agrees to pay to Smt. Minika Salkar, a workman a sum of Rs. 30,200/- (Rupees Thirty thousand two hundred only) in fully and final settlement of all her dues including gratuity and all other terminal dues which amount she has received vide cheque No. 269746 dated 30-07-2009 drawn on Canara Bank, Panaji-Goa.
2. The Workman and the Employer have agreed that the Workman agrees not to pursue the reference No. IT/72/2007 before the Industrial Tribunal and treat the same as settled.
3. The Workman and the Employer have agreed that the present matter in terms of the above understanding is concluded between the parties.
4. The Workman and the Employer have agreed that no further dispute or claim survives in the present matter.

No order as to costs.

Inform the Government accordingly.
